Mad man's world

All the nights when I dream but I can't sleep

I dream about me and how my life could be

Pretend I can hi-hide

(but)

Someone found my trapdoor

it's a mad man's world

The day breaks but (no) it won't break me

Tooth and nail I'll strive to defend me

See that I'm strong

I will fight this once more

I stand tall for all to see me

There are always those who claim to know me

But I'm all alone

A soldier in my own war

it's a mad man's world

All the nights when I dream but I can't sleep

I dream about life and how it will be (when)

I don't have to hi-hide

('cause)

Someone closed my trapdoor

it's a mad man's world
