ZOLPIDEM STADA

I'm begging you for mercy
But not for it to end
I just want you to be quiet
I just need some time to mend

Cause you broke me into pieces
I'm shattered on the floor
But if you give just some time
I'll be crawling back for more

You're a drug and I'm addicted
I need another hit
And even though they're begging me
You're impossible to quit
