Last night

Last night

I couldn\'t sleep

My heart kept me awake

all night

It asked me about you

I didn\'t knew what to say

It asked me where you\'ve gone when you\'re coming back

Once again, I don\'t know

My heart wouldn\'t go to sleep

so I told bedtime stories about you

I wanted to enter my dreams yet another place where I can\'t find you

But my heart couldn\'t get enough

I\'m sleepless...
