Love to see you cry

I love to see you cry

That shows that you're sensitive and aware of your true feelings

You're strong and forgiving.

An open mind

It won't hurt to cry once in a while

It will only help you to forgive and forget

I love to cry with you

Kiss your tears away

Rock you to sleep on my knee

Lean your head against my heart

I'm here for you

I love to see you cry
