Stay true and kind and leave the darkness behind

Darkness behind

Wind will make you feel free
Almost everyone will agree
Smell touches your inner mind
Darkness is better left behind

Birds in the sky are calm
What if we all could do no harm
Stay true and kind
And leave the darkness behind

Stay for a while here in the sun
Do not hide and do not run
Just walk in the flood
Its not out of blood
The darkness is now left behind
