Secret lovers spinning around in this godforsaken world

If we had meet each other in another life or another time,
I would have showed you my love
for the rest of the world.

This is neither the right place or the right time.
Instead I´m saying it by words,
only meant for you and no one else.

I LOVE YOU

by the bottom of my heart,
as deep as the colour of an exclusive red rose.

I LOVE YOU

for every milliseconds of time that you make me long for you.

I LOVE YOU

for making me so dizzy
every time I say your secret name.

I LOVE YOU

cause you are the secret love of my life,
I know it,
You know it.
The rest of the world keeps spinning around without knowing it.
