My love.... you are the words in my head. I wrote this with your thoughts in my mind.....

Say it

You can say it more,
you can say it less.

You can say it behind a door,
or in an SMS.

Just say it with your heart,
with all the feelings inside.

Believe it from the start,
and you don't have to hide.

For me it is easy to say,
because you say it too.

I can say it every day,
it is easy;

I love you
