

Publicerad 2008-02-07 23:12 av daniele äran går till Dallas Green

I found you

I belong

far away from home

And i cant be over you

and still feel your smell because I found

I found you

before I drove away

But now

lay down your face

on my knees, feel safe

So tell me what have I to offer you dear

are we could we keep losing parts even when we

even when we not

are very far in

I found yours

before I found mine before I drifted between your lies and my mistaked times

I had found you before

far very far away

so this can't just can't be a drifting pain between me and you

And now I'm alive

alive

so far

so far here

alive alive agin

I'm

so here with you my dear

after all after all the bad you did in my fall but i found you

so tell me tell me if you can or would we could we just be more safe
safer then in someother day

Texten är utskriven från Poeter.se

Författaren daniele med Poeter.se id #7408 innehar upphovsrätten