well.. not really... actually... not at all...

a deep and serious piece of poetry...

... and suddenly, without warning, you find yourself in hell

only it isn't hell... it's neither heaven nor hell...

it's life... and slowly it sinks in...

you are alive...

just a few words... with a shaken and whispering voice

... why the hell didn't someone tell me I was supposed to actually live?!

... cause... when in doubt... blame everyone else...

it's just easier that way
