Battlestar

Follow the trail,
follow the trail of stars...
Beyond the outer rim,
the outer rim is home...

And the light in our hearts,
the light in our hearts leads us on,
And the pain of loss,
the pain of loss still haunts us...

And pain still lingers,
the pain linger till Earth dawns...
And the planet seen as hope is just a rock of death...

What has happened before
will happen again,
what has happened before,
will crush us again...
