Storm

How long have I been in this storm?

So overwhelmed by the oceans shapeless form.

The water\'s getting harder to tread

with these waves crashing over my head.

If I could just see you everything would be alright.

If I could see you this darkness would turn into light

and I will walk on water, and you will catch me if I fall,

and I will get lost into your eyes

and everything will be alright,

and everything will be alright.

I know you didn\'t bring me out here to drown,

so why am I ten feet under and upside down.

Barely surviving has become my purpose

cause I\'m so used to living underneath the surface

If I could just see you everything would be alright.

If I could see you this darkness would turn into light

and I will walk on water, and you will catch me if I fall,

and I will get lost into your eyes

and everything will be alright,

~~and everything will be alright.~~
