

Without Blushing

There are numerous ways to place yourself OUTSIDE, though you're always INSIDE

Evolution is an automatic motion in time, without any outside force

Accordingly, genetic engineering is evolution speeding up

We are one face of the Big E, and a very effective face, at that

Evolution struck gold with us, if seen strictly evolutionary

Anything we do
- The Beatles, The Bomb, Genetic Engineering, yes, even Putin & Trump - are evolutionary results

Folks who don't want to understand this, are usually the ones who also speak about The Environment, in a tone that presupposes their own position OUTSIDE of The Environment, even though they ARE the environment

AI is one of the latest speedy faces, opening quite new evolutionary possibilities,
without blushing
